THE Southern Road of the four great lines. This road has thus far been managed in such a way as to commend it to die patrousge. Company, under the General Superintendence of H. D. MEARS, General Freight Agent, Now affers inducements to shippers to Baltimore, Philadelphia, Mew Tork, Boston, Richmond. Petersburg, &c., at exceedingly low rales, and farbelow New Orleans prices, as their molerate terms, with the deduction upon insurance of one and a half per cent., by this route, and the European shapping being from 3 to tabillings sterling less than the New Orleans shipping prices, all contribute to render it Reliable as well as Desirable.

Their facilities for transportation are unequaled by any othe road now in operation, as their Western terminus is at PARK ERSBURGH, one hundred and ninety miles below the low water and most dangerous pavigation of the Ohio river. This enables in ordinary water the delivery of goods not only certain but with dispatch, in advance of any other route, and as the water declines their advantages are such as the time of delivery widens on other routes, so that this is the only Cheap, Reliable and Speedy Route. Freights by this route are less exposed to weather than by other poutes, as there is no drayage, the delivery being made at Park exburgh under a well shedded float, and servated from thence by steam immediately to the care, without being subject to werr or

The Louisville steamers connect direct with Parkersburgh stock of boats without delay, as do have see the regular Cinnihnati boats. The Pittsburgh hoats convey direct to Parkersburgh. TENNESSEE LEGISLATURE. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WEDNESDAY, November 30, 1859. AFTERNOON SESSION. The House resumed the consideration of Mr Bayless' resolutions, pending at the time of the recess for dinner. Mr WHITMORE spoke in favor of the resolutions. His speech is held for revision. When he had concluded-Mr. EWING submitted the following resolutions which he desired at the proper time to effer in lieu of the resolutions and amendmen a under consideration; and they were read for the information of the House:

House:*

Resolved, The Gottes we Wear; The House we Live In; as well as Chrious Facts relative to The Arts and Selences. The World of Literature; Conwerce; Manufactures; Anatomy; rhysiology, Agriculture; Basiness; The Gounting House; and The Street.

sembly look upon the recent silly and wicked astempt of John Brown and his seventeen missuided followers, to excite an insurrection among the slaves at Harper's Ferry, as mainly the result of the gross delugion (gotten up and fostered by fanatical agitatore) which prevails at the North in regard to the condition of the slave population in the South. Assuming it to be so grievous as to inspire constant discontent among the slaves, and disposing them to eagerly embrace any project which may be held out ous consequences on the part of the South to con-During "stringent times" the necessity for reliable Insurance firm or strengthen, by exaggerating for party efeaks of John Brown and rehended from such out his followers at Harper's Ferry; in which they ut- MEMOIRS OF ROBERT HOUDIN terly failed to excite an insurrectionary spirit in a single slave so far as we are informed. Resolved. That while it is a nifest from the number and the cost of the arms collected by Brown and his followers, that they must have received direct aid and encouragement in their wicked enterprise, from many abelition leaders, besides such monomantacs as Gerrit Smith and Dr. Howe; and whilst it is further manifest that they acted to perfeet harmony of purpose with the teachings and sympathies of the whole abolition faction at the North: nevertheless we do not believe the great body of the Republican party encourage or sympathias with such wickedness and folly. But it must be conceded by all reasonable men, that the existence of such a party at the Nor h, no matter under what circumstances of provication it had its origin-a party based upon the single idea of hostility t slavery, powerful in the number of its members and in the ability of its leaders-a party upheld by numerous public journals, daily teeming with exaggerated pictures of the oppression endured by the slaves, with inflammatory may clives against the South, against slavery and the slaveuoiders-inevitably tends to incire the weak-minded and fanatical to engage in such desperate and preposterous schemes; and that if such a party shall be long upheld at the North, it must in the end angender such a degree of alienation and bitter hatred between the people of the North and South as will prove to be incompatible with the existence or continuance of a com-

Resolved. That the idea or theory that the existence of slavery in some States or communities, and the absence of it in other and adjoining States or communities, is incompatible with the existence of a union of such States and communities under one Federal head or General Government, was refuted by the judgment and conclusions of the four ders of the Republic, and the founders of the Federal Constitution, and has been clearly disproved by the experience of more than half a century of successful, harmonious and prosperous career of the whole country under the present confederated Union. Resolved, That, in the opinion of the members of Packet Post " " " this General Assembly, there is no necessary conflict betweeen free and slave labor in any well regulated c mmunity, and least of all in a country like | Flat Cap, of every variety. It has been pronounced by the highest scientific and medical authority a pure and healthy situation; the free from delegation of these who require an alcoholic situation of the medical purposes. "Daly's Valley Whakey" is superior to Gin. Cordial, French He may, Port and Maderra Wines, and indeed all other varieties of sports which are sold in this market, for act one of them can be found in a pure state. No intelligent physician would have the rashness to prescribe "Port Wine" or "French Brandy for a variety, then it is parent to a firm a race being by nature, endowed with powers of endurance and a carsonity for labor and enjoylabor may coexist in perfect harmony, and to the mutual advantage and convenience of both-the Envelopes, of all kinds and sizes. of endurance and a caracity for labor and enjoyment in climes which soon impair the energies of the white race, may be appropriately and profitably | Bankers' Cases, Port Folios, Writing Desks. employed in the culture of such staples as rice, sugar and cotton, products so necessary to the comforts of the white race, while the latter, in climes more congenial to their physical constitution, may find profitable employment on the farm and in Law Books. Resolved. That the theory of an "irrepressible con in no other way can the multiplied mischiefs of perpetual strife on the subject of slavery, between the two sections, be swoided. Resolved, That in the opinion of this General Assembly, all the evils growing out of the present intense slavery agitation-all the discord, alienation, and bitter haired now growing up and extending between the North and the South, are the legitimate fruit not of any necessary and "irrepressible conflict" between free and slave labor, but of a conflict between rival aspirants in the race of ambition North and South, urged on by an inordinate greed of efficial power and plunder-a condict which can only be repressed by a powerful and successful effort by the friends of the Union, to rouse the people to a conviction of the reality and magnitude of the impending dangers to its existence.

Resolved, That the declaration of Wm. H. Ser ard to the effect that a respectable portion of the South, under the lead of such men as F. P. Blair, of Missouri, and Cassius M. Clay, of Kentucky, are prepared to unite with the Republican party against the extension of slavery, "and will eventually rise up against slavery," we aver to be unfounded in fact, at least so far as the people of Tennessees are concerned. But we think it due to truth and candor to state that Mr. Seward and others who have asserted the contrary, have and high Democratic authority to sustain them in their assertion, since it is well known that leading politicians and public jour-nals in this State have proclaimed to the world that a large propertion of the people of the State of Tennessee, under the lead of prominent men of the Opposition party, were preparing to unite with the Rob Roy, Republican party; and some of them have gone so the Antiquary, and Secret that some of the leaders of the Op Resolved, That we have ful confidence in the con-Wavely, servative members of Congress from this State; Ker and that they will regard as enemies to the Union The Pirate, and will have no affiliation with any party or facand will have no affiliation with any party or fac-tion, or with the members of any party or faction. Mr WISENER commenced a speech in opposition to some of the resolutions, but more particularly in favor of his amendment. He gave way for a mo-
